

Love, Lyre and Lucie.

The youth and his divinity In livery lace or dimly Establish an affinity.
They love.

At sight.
I loved a maid reliable With talent undeniable,
And fingers white and pliable.
She plays.

At sight.
The impetuous editor
A bill received and read it over Now some ungracious creditor Will draw.

At sight.
—Chicago Rambler.
Courtroom Monday morning with Judge H. M. Higgins on the bench.

Mrs. Anna Quinn, of this place, is visiting relatives and friends in Chillicothe.

Mr. Will H. McCarty, now a graduate of the University of Wooster, is at home.

The banks of this place will be closed next Monday, July 5th, in honor of the Glorious 4th.

Mrs. B. B. Moon, of Columbus, is visiting at the residence of her brother, Judge Huggins.

Miss Edna McKee, of Chillicothe, is visiting her grandparents, Judge and Mrs. W. M. Meek.

Miss Birdie Parker, of Ripley, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Hawk, at the Parker House.

Miss E. P. Allen expects to be at home from her school and open up the Institute about July 7th.

Mr. J. E. Kirtin, of the NEWS-HERALD force, left for Cincinnati last week to spend a short vacation in that city.

Messrs. U. C. Eubanks and Bert Snider, of Highland county, left for southeast Nebraska last Thursday morning.

Miss Estelle Pierson returned last week from school at Granville, O., to spend the summer vacation at home.

Miss Maggie R. McKeehan, of the public schools of Avondale, is at home to spend the vacation with her parents.

We are officially informed that J. N. will be here to assume the veil and lift the pressure at the Court-house on July 7th.

The Scott Dragons, Company A, of the Thirteenth Regiment, left yesterday morning to go into camp at Washington C. H.

Mr. Charles Ketchum, who has been attending school at Delaware, is in Hillsboro and will remain during the summer vacation.

In Sparger & Quinn's new Bee Hive everything is nicely arranged and a full line of goods is carried, with prices as low as anywhere.

Mr. Charles Welmer, who has been seriously ill for some time, is slightly better at present, and hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Miss Mattie Patterson, who has been teaching in the West for several months past, returned home last week to visit her parents and friends.

Mrs. Solomon Druffel and daughter, of Missouri, Minn., have returned home after a short visit at the residence of Mr. J.
H. Richards.

Mr. Brough Overman got his arm caught in a self-blinder one day last week and received a number of severe flesh wounds before he could extricate himself from the machine.

The next meeting of the Highland County Medical Society will be held at the Court House in Hillsboro, O., July 28th, 1886, at 10 o'clock, a. m. All regular physicians in the county are cordially invited to attend.

F. M. TROSKA, M. D., Cor. Sec.

Mr. Ed. A. Frey, of Chillicothe, will be in Hillsboro the latter part of this week for the purpose of forming a class in music. Mr.
Frey instructed at the residence of Mr. J.
H. Richards.

Although next Sunday is the Glorious Fourth not much excitement has been manifested thus far over the anniversary of our National birthday. Mr. George Bowers show window presents the only hint that the "anniversaries" is approaching.

Will our citizens allow the day to pass without public demonstration?

Mr. Leonard Piper, of Marysville, O., was united in marriage to Miss Rachel Conrad at the home of the bride, south of town, last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Piper left in the afternoon for a trip through the West. They will take up their residence at Marysville, whither they are followed by the good-wishes of many friends in Hillsboro.

The colored people of Hillsboro, will give a picnic at the first grounds on Monday, July 5th. Music will be furnished by the String Band, of Chillicothe. The floral hall will be used for dancing, and the floor managers are Messrs. Heskiah Stewart, of Washington C. H., Thomas Jones, Greenfield, Robert Frasier, Wilmington, Richard Rogers, North Liberty, Thomas Dunn, East Maneore, Frank White, Fourmchote, Clay Maneore, Washington, C. H., Messrs. Albert Ford and Samuel Williams, of this place are general managers. Privileges will be sold at the fair ground on the 10th of July.

Lightning used Liberty township for a target last Friday afternoon and did some pretend good shooting. One shaft struck the bull's eye and one weather boarding a planter pointing off the house of Jonathan Reed, on Pleasant street. Mr. Reed was stunned and the furniture scattered and broken but no serious damage was done. A son successful shot missed the target and struck the house of Mr. Ed. Glendon, about a mile beyond the New Market township line. The extent of the damage done at the latter place has not been ascertained. A number of trees in this vicinity were peeled by high shafts.

The getting up of the 13th Regiment arrived here last Saturday and was received at the train by a delegation of Company A, to which the gun belongs. Every regiment of the 13th is entitled to one of these formidable weapons and it has been the custom to give it to Company A, of each regiment. The gun was manufactured by the Ames Manufacturing Company, of Chicopee, Mass., and now stands crowning out at the door of Holmes & Brey's undertaking establishment. It has four chambers, 40-100 caliber, and is capable of discharging four hundred shots a minute. The weapon will be at great service in case of war but the fact that a gun is kept in Hillsboro may furnish a cause for calling out Company A, at more frequent intervals than in the past.

HORSE-BUYERS WILL BE ON OUR STREETS NEXT SATURDAY.

Miss Maud Mander is visiting her friend, Miss Nellie Marshall, in Springfield.

Miss E. L. Grand-Girard spent several days of last week with relatives in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyford and Miss Mary Fairley, of Cincinnati, are visiting relatives in Hillsboro.

Dr. C. W. Ketchum will deliver a discourse on the subject of "baptism" at the M. E. church next Sunday morning.

Mr. J. H. Edensfield, of Sugar Grove Ridge, last week sold a fine Short Horn yearling bull to Mr. T. H. Willis, of Greenfield, for $250.

A Sunday School celebration will be given by the Baptist Church of New Market in Mr. I. H. McConaughy's grove, on Saturday, July 17th, 1886.

Miss Marie Ames left yesterday in company with her sister, Miss Lulu Smith, to spend some time at the home of the latter near Springfield, O.

The Bee Hive is located a few doors above the Post Office, in the best place for the convenience of the purchasing public. Call and take a look at the store.

Quite a number of applicants whose cases have already been acted upon, will be mustered in by the Sons of Veterans to-morrow night. It is desired that all the members be present.

Mrs. James M. Barrer, who was some weeks ago called to Columbus by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Anna E. Henton, returned home last Monday night. She reports Mrs. H. as still in a critical condition.

Dr. D. S. Guthrie, of Highgateport, O., will speak on North High street, lately occupied by Stevenson & Young. The doctor was at one time a druggist in this place and we again welcome him in our midst.

The entertainment given by the A. M. E.
Church last week was not so much of a success as was expected, on account of bad weather. A good many babies were exhibited and the attendance was good. The attempt was a failure financially and the managers expect to repeat the exhibition at some time in August.

A petition was filed in the Common Pleas Court last week by City Solicitor Morrow, asking for the appointment of a Board of Trustees for the Hillsboro Short Line Railroad and on Monday the following appointments were made by Judge Huggins: Fred Drum, McKeehan and O. A. Price. They are all good men and the citizens of Hillsboro need have no fears that the interests of the Short Line will not be cared for.

Again we present our readers with some entertaining miscellaneous matter on our first and fifth pages. "Knight of the Grip" is a correspondent just added to our list, whose easy, graceful style is peculiar, but none the less, the "Knights of the Grip" in the Auburn penitentiary, gets a good deal of James D. Fish and writes up the institution, while H. L. G. in his usual lively way tells his experience in a deer hunt near Gallatin, Alabama.

Excursion Sunday, July 4th, to Washington C. H.

The C. W. & B. R. R. will run special train to Washington C. H., to the military encampment, Sunday, July 4th, leaving Hillsboro at 7:30 a. m. The rate will be one fare for the round trip, $1.70. Train will leave Washington in time to reach Hillsboro for late supper. Tickets will be good returning until July 8th, inclusive, for all who wish to remain longer than Sunday.

Knights of Pythias.

At their meeting Wednesday night, June 23d, Hillsboro Lodge No. 16, elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

V. C. J. H. Worley,
C. C. A. M. Frost,
P. C. Ed. L. Watson,
F. C. Chas. E. Guthrie,
M. A. B. R. Handley, E. C. D. H. D. Evans.

Trustees for ensuing term—H. D. Waddell, J. W. Tudor and G. W. Bowers.

The City Hall Prohibition Meeting.

Last Saturday the Prohibitionists met at City Hall and organized the county Executive Committee and made arrangements for their convention, and transacted other business. Their new Executive Committee comprises the following persons: W. W.
Thompson, Dr. L. M. Green, J. W. Oldaker, J. E. Bridwell, John L. Larkin, Wm. Ellis, and Rev. M. Redkey. The delegates to their State Convention at Canton, July 28th and 29th, are, Dr. L. M. Green, Rev. M. Redkey, Wm. Ellis, M. B. Park, and Olin J. Ross.

Children's Day will be observed at Olive Chapel July 4th, by the Union Sunday School
of that place.

Mrs. Anna E. Bayless, of Hillsboro, came down on the narrow gauge last Saturday, and with "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

John Bennington has purchased a new Champion self-blinder, and has a large number of large fields of wheat on his farm he needs it.

Miss Lizzie Robinson returned to her home in Dayton last week after a visit of several weeks among relatives and friends of her community.

The wheat crop is better than for several years in this country. It is not very good. Fruit of all kinds, except peaches, plenty, and a large crop of blackberries will soon be ripe.

The following teachers are engaged to teach in White Oak township next September: W. W.
Igo at Union, John F. Nave at Shoffner's, W.
A. Rube at Taylorville, M. P. Purdy at Rockaway, Fred Roseberry at New Market,
and John Cox at Morfrytown, a. B. Bosselt at Ebenezer.

Children's Day will be observed at Olive Chapel July 4th, by the Union Sunday School
of that place.

Mrs. Anna E. Bayless, of Hillsboro, came down on the narrow gauge last Saturday,
and with "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

John Bennington has purchased a new Champion self-blinder, and has a large number of large fields of wheat on his farm he needs it.

Miss Lizzie Robinson returned to her home in Dayton last week after a visit of several weeks among relatives and friends of her community.

The wheat crop is better than for several years in this country. It is not very good. Fruit of all kinds, except peaches, plenty, and a large crop of blackberries will soon be ripe.

The following teachers are engaged to teach
in White Oak township next September: W. W.
Igo at Union, John F. Nave at Shoffner's, W.
A. Rube at Taylorville, M. P. Purdy at Rockaway, Fred Roseberry at New Market,
and John Cox at Morfrytown, a. B. Bos-
selt at Ebenezer.

Children's Day will be observed at Olive Chapel July 4th, by the Union Sunday School
of that place.

Mrs. Anna E. Bayless, of Hillsboro, came down on the narrow gauge last Saturday,
and with "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

John Bennington has purchased a new Champion self-blinder, and has a large number of large fields of wheat on his farm he needs it.

Miss Lizzie Robinson returned to her home in Dayton last week after a visit of several weeks among relatives and friends of her community.

The wheat crop is better than for several years in this country. It is not very good. Fruit of all kinds, except peaches, plenty, and a large crop of blackberries will soon be ripe.

The following teachers are engaged to teach
in White Oak township next September: W. W.
Igo at Union, John F. Nave at Shoffner's, W.
A. Rube at Taylorville, M. P. Purdy at Rockaway, Fred Roseberry at New Market,
and John Cox at Morfrytown, a. B. Bos-
selt at Ebenezer.

Children's Day will be observed at Olive Chapel July 4th, by the Union Sunday School
of that place.

Mrs. Anna E. Bayless, of Hillsboro, came down on the narrow gauge last Saturday,
and with "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

John Bennington has purchased a new Champion self-blinder, and has a large number of large fields of wheat on his farm he needs it.

Miss Lizzie Robinson returned to her home in Dayton last week after a visit of several weeks among relatives and friends of her community.

The wheat crop is better than for several years in this country. It is not very good. Fruit of all kinds, except peaches, plenty, and a large crop of blackberries will soon be ripe.

The following teachers are engaged to teach
in White Oak township next September: W. W.
Igo at Union, John F. Nave at Shoffner's, W.
A. Rube at Taylorville, M. P. Purdy at Rockaway, Fred Roseberry at New Market,
and John Cox at Morfrytown, a. B. Bos-
selt at Ebenezer.

Children's Day will be observed at Olive Chapel July 4th, by the Union Sunday School
of that place.

Mrs. Anna E. Bayless, of Hillsboro, came down on the narrow gauge last Saturday,
and with "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

John Bennington has purchased a new Champion self-blinder, and has a large number of large fields of wheat on his farm he needs it.

Miss Lizzie Robinson returned to her home in Dayton last week after a visit of several weeks among relatives and friends of her community.

DELFEST.

A. T. Williamson visited Adams county last week.

Cherries are in fair demand at ten cents per gallon.

On account of rain last Sunday, children services were put off.

George Davidson lost a valuable horse last week—supposed to be a bay gelding.

L. C. Thompson, of Dunklinville, visited his brother, D. B. Thompson, last week.

PRICETOWN.

June 25th, 1886.

David Workman has a lame back.

Mr. Frasse, the photographer, has pitched his tent on the public ground here.

The seems to be no desire on the part of our people to celebrate the 4th of July.

Eliza Malcom is here on a visit to her two daughters, Mrs. Custer and Mrs. Faria.

Robert King has again made the rounds with his beef, which he will supply his customers through the season.

The township house has had the paint brush applied to it, and it has produced a beautiful effect. Henry Larish was the artist.

Our mill is progressing well but sure, The boiler shed is up and covered, and the foundation of the main building is laid.

Henry Smith was married on Sunday morning to Miss Kate Johnson, both of Salem.
This accounts for the all day rain last week, as Smith was on the bachelor list.

Elizabeth Barker, widow of Thomas Barker, who has been sick for some time, died last Friday night, aged 94 years. She was interred in the family graveyard near her residence.

BUPORD.

June 25th, 1886.

Charley Vance is again on our streets. He was in a critical condition last week.

The Puckett firm has completed the brick work on William Hill brick house.

S. B. Crozier is again at his old business not quite so good as this country.

Miss Nettie Duval will teach the little girls in town this winter; Mr. C. C. Frost has had the upper room engaged for some time.

Mr. J. B. Ferguson, one of our best farmers, had two attacks of hemiplegia of the left side
last week, and recovery is thought doubtful.
His sons, Henry and Allen, are attending him.

We notice your "Hillsboro pencil-pusher" gives Sammie Workman a ventilation. We were present and heard all the trial, if you call it a trial. Your "Dodgeville man" says
"James Armstrong made an affidavit before Justice Palmer, alleging that he (Workman)
had forged complainant's name to a receipt for having paid county taxes."

Mr. Armstrong swore upon the stand that he signed the receipt himself, but there were some words put in the receipt that were not
his. He signed it "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

Mr. J. B. Ferguson, one of our best farmers,
had two attacks of hemiplegia of the left side
last week, and recovery is thought doubtful.
His sons, Henry and Allen, are attending him.

We notice your "Hillsboro pencil-pusher"
gives Sammie Workman a ventilation. We were present and heard all the trial, if you
call it a trial. Your "Dodgeville man" says
"James Armstrong made an affidavit before Justice Palmer, alleging that he (Workman)
had forged complainant's name to a receipt
for having paid county taxes."

Mr. Armstrong swore upon the stand that he signed the receipt himself, but there were
some words put in the receipt that were not
his. He signed it "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

Mr. J. B. Ferguson, one of our best farmers,
had two attacks of hemiplegia of the left side
last week, and recovery is thought doubtful.
His sons, Henry and Allen, are attending him.

We notice your "Hillsboro pencil-pusher"
gives Sammie Workman a ventilation. We were present and heard all the trial, if you
call it a trial. Your "Dodgeville man" says
"James Armstrong made an affidavit before Justice Palmer, alleging that he (Workman)
had forged complainant's name to a receipt
for having paid county taxes."

Mr. Armstrong swore upon the stand that he signed the receipt himself, but there were
some words put in the receipt that were not
his. He signed it "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

Mr. J. B. Ferguson, one of our best farmers,
had two attacks of hemiplegia of the left side
last week, and recovery is thought doubtful.
His sons, Henry and Allen, are attending him.

We notice your "Hillsboro pencil-pusher"
gives Sammie Workman a ventilation. We were present and heard all the trial, if you
call it a trial. Your "Dodgeville man" says
"James Armstrong made an affidavit before Justice Palmer, alleging that he (Workman)
had forged complainant's name to a receipt
for having paid county taxes."

Mr. Armstrong swore upon the stand that he signed the receipt himself, but there were
some words put in the receipt that were not
his. He signed it "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

Mr. J. B. Ferguson, one of our best farmers,
had two attacks of hemiplegia of the left side
last week, and recovery is thought doubtful.
His sons, Henry and Allen, are attending him.

We notice your "Hillsboro pencil-pusher"
gives Sammie Workman a ventilation. We were present and heard all the trial, if you
call it a trial. Your "Dodgeville man" says
"James Armstrong made an affidavit before Justice Palmer, alleging that he (Workman)
had forged complainant's name to a receipt
for having paid county taxes."

Mr. Armstrong swore upon the stand that he signed the receipt himself, but there were
some words put in the receipt that were not
his. He signed it "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

Mr. J. B. Ferguson, one of our best farmers,
had two attacks of hemiplegia of the left side
last week, and recovery is thought doubtful.
His sons, Henry and Allen, are attending him.

We notice your "Hillsboro pencil-pusher"
gives Sammie Workman a ventilation. We were present and heard all the trial, if you
call it a trial. Your "Dodgeville man" says
"James Armstrong made an affidavit before Justice Palmer, alleging that he (Workman)
had forged complainant's name to a receipt
for having paid county taxes."

Mr. Armstrong swore upon the stand that he signed the receipt himself, but there were
some words put in the receipt that were not
his. He signed it "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

Mr. J. B. Ferguson, one of our best farmers,
had two attacks of hemiplegia of the left side
last week, and recovery is thought doubtful.
His sons, Henry and Allen, are attending him.

We notice your "Hillsboro pencil-pusher"
gives Sammie Workman a ventilation. We were present and heard all the trial, if you
call it a trial. Your "Dodgeville man" says
"James Armstrong made an affidavit before Justice Palmer, alleging that he (Workman)
had forged complainant's name to a receipt
for having paid county taxes."

Mr. Armstrong swore upon the stand that he signed the receipt himself, but there were
some words put in the receipt that were not
his. He signed it "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

Mr. J. B. Ferguson, one of our best farmers,
had two attacks of hemiplegia of the left side
last week, and recovery is thought doubtful.
His sons, Henry and Allen, are attending him.

We notice your "Hillsboro pencil-pusher"
gives Sammie Workman a ventilation. We were present and heard all the trial, if you
call it a trial. Your "Dodgeville man" says
"James Armstrong made an affidavit before Justice Palmer, alleging that he (Workman)
had forged complainant's name to a receipt
for having paid county taxes."

Mr. Armstrong swore upon the stand that he signed the receipt himself, but there were
some words put in the receipt that were not
his. He signed it "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

Mr. J. B. Ferguson, one of our best farmers,
had two attacks of hemiplegia of the left side
last week, and recovery is thought doubtful.
His sons, Henry and Allen, are attending him.

We notice your "Hillsboro pencil-pusher"
gives Sammie Workman a ventilation. We were present and heard all the trial, if you
call it a trial. Your "Dodgeville man" says
"James Armstrong made an affidavit before Justice Palmer, alleging that he (Workman)
had forged complainant's name to a receipt
for having paid county taxes."

Mr. Armstrong swore upon the stand that he signed the receipt himself, but there were
some words put in the receipt that were not
his. He signed it "Squire Alex. Purdy's" week.

Mr. J. B. Ferguson, one of our best farmers,
had two attacks of hemiplegia of the left side
last week, and recovery is thought doubtful.
His sons, Henry and Allen, are attending him.

RAINSBORO.

June 25th, 1886.

James Tharp, of Lyndon, was in town Wednesday.

Wild raspberries are more abundant this season than usual.

Dr. Miller reports William Lucas, of Boston, an anconaleant.

"Squire T. M. Watts, of Carmel, was in town a few days since.

William Lucas is understood, will teach in the Barrett Mill district next fall and winter.

Z. C. Miller reports that his potatoes are rotting in the ground. Too much wet we opine.

A blight or rot has struck the grape crop in this vicinity and threatens the destruction of the entire crop.

John Sanders, of Leeburg, visited his parents, Rev. William Sanders and wife, of this place, Sunday.

Will Miller and Frank Gosselt expect to go into camp with their company at Washington C. H., Tuesday next.

James Brown and wife, of Danville, are visiting Mrs. Brown's mother, Mr. and Mrs. A.
W. Redkey, of this place.

William Forsaker is confined to his home with a severe attack of lumbago that came upon him suddenly, a few days since.

J. H. Redkey, of Chillicothe, was in town the fore part of the week on business connected with the estate of P. B. Redkey, deceased.

Ant Cella Russell, whose serious illness we reported some time since, is on the mend, and notwithstanding her extreme age, may get well.

Mrs. Absalom Miller and daughter, Miss Ella, of this place, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of West Main street, Wednesday.

A gentleman from Jeffersonville was here Thursday and Wednesday buying butcher's stock for a payton company. He was measured by C. A. Gosselt, of Rocky Fork, is said to be fully one half stout.

William Estle, late correspondent of the Gas-ette, is just recovering from a pretty severe attack of the grip, but is a healthy old boy to have the whooping cough, but it is a fact, nevertheless.

Prof. D. S. Ferguson, of Leeburg, was the guest of his sister, Miss Anna Ferguson, in the West End, Wednesday. This is Mr. Fer-guson's native town and he is always a welcome guest among us.

Clean timothy hay will likely sell at a premium in this region as nearly all the meadows are infested with a weed known as the white top. The hay crop will fall below the average in quantity as well as quality.

Edward Roberts will go to Greenfield, Monday, to attend the Normal at that place, under the supervision of Prof. J. E. Ed. has been engaged as principal of the public school at South Salem, Ross county, for the coming year.

Benjamin Carper lost a family horse a short time since and gave it decent burial, which was the right thing to do, but reports say that some good dog up its remains and he is still and carried it away. Too bad, ain't it? Wonder who did it?

There stands a peach tree on the lands of Robert Sumner, just north of town, on which he has raised more than three scores and ten years since and yet the marks made by the claws of the bear in climbing the tree can be distinctly seen to this day.

Thursday evening John Duff came in with his best wagon and stopped at his residence on Main street and shipped the bride from